I am a multidisciplinary designer with a passion for graphic and editorial design, creative problem-solving, and visual storytelling. Throughout my studies and career, I have gained hands-on experience in various disciplines, including experience design, graphic and editorial layout, video editing, photography, shoot styling, and sales & marketing. I am driven by a curiosity for visual culture and innovation. I am eager to pursue freelance opportunities that will challenge me creatively and enable me to deliver compelling, audience-focused designs.
